

Dressing Room Etiquette

In order for everyone to feel safe and comfortable in our dressing rooms here are some things to remember and practice when you are in a dressing room that accommodates different genders and minors

- Take advantage of empty dressing rooms and bathroom stalls
- Practice coming to the park half-changed (with at least a base layer on)
- If you can't come to the park half-changed practice using the bathroom stall or private area if one is available
- You must be covering your private parts in the dressing room at all times
- You must be covering your private parts in the dressing room at all times
- Shifts in the dressing room (ex. females then males) could be considered if there are no alternative areas to change such as bathrooms or private areas
- Knock before walking into the dressing room to ensure that everyone is properly dressed
- Practice the Rule of Two when in the changing room with a minor (Two adults to one minor) a minor and an adult should never be alone in a dressing room together.

The dressing room is designed to be a safe space for all of our officials no matter their age or gender. With these etiquettes in place, the hope is that everyone will be more comfortable in our safe space off the diamond.
